Barcelona Chair and Stool

One of the most recognized collections of the twentieth century, the Barcelona Chair and Stool exude a simple elegance that epitomizes Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's famous maxim, "less is more." Mies conceived the pieces to serve as seating for the King and Queen of Spain when they visited his German Pavilion at the 1929 International Exposition in Barcelona. Mies, a trusted mentor to Florence Knoll when she was his architecture student at the Illinois Institute of Technology, later granted Knoll the production rights to the Barcelona Chair and Stool. Now a signature of the Knoll brand, they've been built to Mies van der Rohe's exacting standards ever since.

Key Features

1. Cushions
 Standard: Premium quality, highly resilient urethane foam with down-like Dacron polyester fiberfill.

 Relaxed: Soft density, fire retardant urethane foam blanketed with a non-woven fabric topper and an additional Dacron layer for a softer feel. Relaxed cushions are more supple and casual in appearance.
2. Upholstery
 Individual Spinneybeck® or Edelman leather pieces (40 for the chair, 16 for the stool) from a single cowhide, are cut, hand-welted, and hand-tufted with leather buttons.
3. Straps
 Spinneybeck or Edelman belting leather with edges dyed to match; attached to frame with aluminum rivets on polished chrome frame, and with solid stainless steel screws on stainless steel frame.
4. Frame
 Polished chrome that's hand ground and hand buffed to a mirror finish; or premium grade 304 bar stock stainless steel that's shaped, welded, and hand-buffed to a mirror finish.
5. An Original Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Design
 The frame is stamped with the Knoll logo and designer's signature ensuring lifetime authentication.
